

Job Description
Welder

Department

Reports to

Position Title:

Position Description:

Weld aluminum parts, working with engineer drawings, adjust welding equipment, apply combination welding procedures, maintain quantity of assembly output, read blue prints, weld together metal parts, components or structure, check own work and set it up, monitor production machinery/equipment operation to detect problems, move or fit heavy objects, read work orders, instructions, formulas or processing charts, operate hoist or hydraulic boom, read and understand operating manuals, read specifications.

Minimum Requirements:

Must be able to read, write and understand English. Required math skills include the ability to accurately count, multiply, divide, add and subtract. Works from instruction sheets, engineering drawings, spec sheets and verbal instructions to assemble mailboxes safely and of excellent quality. Must be capable of frequent lifting of components weighing up to 40 pounds.

Minimum Experience:

1-year experience as a welder of aluminum parts, welding symbols. High School or equivalent preferred.